

Ten things I'm proud of from 2017

1. Expanded business partnership and hired three developers.
2. Created and bootstrapped new SaaS app; Tavro.
3. Joined Sterling Talent Solutions as SaaS leader; built/recruited team, globalized flagship SterlingONE platform and launched globally.
4. Initiated, ran, and managed several major initiatives at SterlingTS that led to 7 figure savings in engineering and automation improvements.
5. Learned to identify anxiety driven behaviors; working on managing anxiety!
6. Learned how to fly-fish!
7. Spent more time with my kids than every previous year.
8. Climbed Snow Lake, Little Si & Rattlesnake Mountain.
9. Traveled more than any previous year; Oregon, Las Vegas (twice!), Chicago, Alaska, Canada.
10. Celebrated ten years of marriage to the most amazing woman I've ever known.
